September 2025
MESSAGE FROM THE SOUTH

Brethren

As we take up labor again after the summer, I have already begun to look forward to next year and moving up to the West. That is not to say that I have not enjoyed my time in the South but I am anxious to learn more in a new position and continue my Masonic Journey. I do thank each of you for the support that you have shown me during my time as Junior Warden.

I would also like to give a special thank you to Worshipful Master Spicer for his leadership as well as his mentorship this year and I look forward to what is yet to come during the remaining months of his term. Moving forward, I am confident that next year will be another successful year with Brother Crowther serving in the East.

Brethren, as we continue forward through the balance of this year and into next year, I challenge each of you to find the time to occasionally come out to Lodge, perhaps enjoy a meal with us, and socialize. I realize that life pulls us in many directions and it is easy to find a reason not to show up, but your presence is important to us. Even if you haven't been out to Lodge in years, don't let the fear of not remembering all of the masonic protocol keep you from attending. I promise you that everyone will be glad to see you and will welcome you with open arms. After all, that is a major part of what Masonry is all about.

Fraternally,
Jeffrey L. Rhile
Junior Warden
