MASTER’S MESSAGE

February is the month of St. Valentine’s. This makes me think of the Marvel Comic Story of Thor, the God of Thunder. As you may already know, Thor uses his hammer to wield lightning and thunder as his superpower. During a battle with his sister Hela, Thor’s hammer is destroyed, leaving Thor seemingly powerless. In a second battle with his sister to protect his world of Asgard, she all but defeats him. But before she strikes the fatal blow, Thor has a vision of his father Odin. Thor tells his father he has lost the battle because he does not have his hammer. To which Odin replies “You are the God of thunder, not the God of hammers”, basically reminding Thor that his power resides in himself, the hammer is more of a guide.

This is a great story to think about, especially during the month of St. Valentine’s. While this Saint is associated with Romance, he was first widely known for the love and charity he displayed towards his fellow human beings. He is the patron saint of beekeepers and gave his life, literally, to defend his faith. To tie these two together, the world needs Freemasons more than ever. Brotherly love and moral virtue. Your kind offices are open to every human being. We must always remember what we are. Modern day “hammers” such as Thor’s, can be politics, religion, money, culture, nations, etc. They all guide us to who and what we strive to be. But make no mistake how you act and what your views are, are yours and yours to own. Once you remove your hammer or guide, you must stand by your beliefs and acts by yourself, not because someone or something says so as part of XYZ organization or belief, but because you are a man looking to do good in the world, even to those who we would call our literal or figurative enemies. It takes a strong man to have understanding and compassion.

In the end, Thor outfights his sister, but he does not defeat her. He saves all Asgardians and evacuates the destruction of his world. His sister, in her greed and effort to enslave the people of Asgard, gets consumed by the fire she started on Asgard. Thrown into this fire by the beast, Surtur, she inadvertently releases. Thor, who initially turns down the crown, becomes King, because he earns it. While his sister Hela, who forces herself into power, is Queen over ashes. Brethren, be kind to all human beings, and expect nothing in return. Always do and say what is right; especially when no one is watching. You live forever with what you say and do. Enjoy St Valentines day, and may Brotherly love prevail!

WB Christopher Curcia
