

THE MASTER'S MESSAGE

Brethren,

As Worshipful Master of Livingston Lodge, I write to you with a heavy heart—but also with unshakable confidence in who we are. The recent flood caused extensive and heartbreaking damage to our lodge. Walls, floors, and furnishings, but none of our treasured elements of our building were affected. It is a difficult moment, and it's okay to acknowledge the sense of loss that comes with seeing our home hurt.

But let me be absolutely clear: this setback does not define us. Livingston Lodge has endured challenges before, and each time it emerged stronger. With resolve, careful planning, and the dedication of the brethren, our lodge will be restored to its original glory—or better. This is not the end of our story; it is a chapter of rebuilding, unity, and renewal.

During construction, our meetings will be temporarily held at Essex Lodge. We are grateful for their fraternal support and hospitality during this time.

Our lodge is more than a building. It lives in our principles, our fellowship, and our commitment to one another. Together, we will rebuild—stronger than ever.

Fraternally yours,
Scott Foster
Worshipful Master
