

THE MASTER'S MESSAGE

Brethren,

After going dark for the summer months, it feels great to be back in Lodge and back to Masonry! I hope everyone had a safe, enjoyable, and relaxing summer. While we were dark, there was plenty happening behind the scenes. I'm proud to share that the renovations to Livingston Lodge #11 have finally been completed.

We upgraded and improved many areas around the Lodge, making our home a better place for our members, our families, and future generations of Masons. It took a great deal of time, effort, and dedication, and I want to thank everyone who helped make it happen. A special thanks to Brother Brent Yeomans for all his work.

Most importantly, we're glad to be back in our home.

As we begin a new Masonic season, I encourage every Brother to come back, reconnect, and get involved. Our Lodge is more than a building—it is where we build friendships, honor our traditions, and continue the work of Freemasonry. I look forward to seeing everyone back in Lodge.

Welcome home, Brethren!

Fraternally,
Worshipful Master Scott Foster
