

THE MASTER'S MESSAGE

Brethren,

As I near the conclusion of my term as Worshipful Master, I find myself reflecting on the many accomplishments and cherished moments we've shared this past year. It has been an honor to serve, and together, we've made great strides in embodying the true purpose of Freemasonry—personal growth, brotherhood, and service to our communities.

One of the most gratifying highlights was our collective effort to support the future generation through scholarships for the students of Livingston High School. These scholarships are more than financial assistance—they represent our commitment to improving society by investing in the young minds who will shape tomorrow. The success of this initiative reminded me of the Masonic values of charity and education, which are central to our fraternity's purpose.

Throughout the year, we've held several events that strengthened our bond as brothers. From fellowship dinners to our educational seminars, each gathering reinforced the principle that Freemasonry is not just a philosophy we study, but a way of life we live together.

Traveling together, whether visiting lodges or attending grand lodge events, it has given us the opportunity to see how our brothers from other lodges live and practice Masonry, expanding our perspective while deepening our understanding of our shared principles.

Perhaps one of the greatest accomplishments we achieved this year was welcoming new candidates into our lodge. Through continued mentorship and by living our principles, we've ensured that the light of Freemasonry continues to grow brighter.

As I prepare to step down, I want to express my deepest gratitude to each of you. The fraternity we've cultivated is a living testament to the timeless values of Freemasonry. By remaining steadfast in these tenets, we have not only bettered ourselves but also served the world around us.

Thank you for your trust and for giving me the opportunity to lead. I am confident that the coming year will bring even more success and growth around them.

Yours Truly,

WM Richard Biggs III
