

THE MASTER'S MESSAGE

Brethren,

As we step into this new year of service at Livingston Lodge, it is my great honor to greet you as your Worshipful Master. I have an amazing year planned for us, and together we will embark on a journey to uphold and further the noble tenets of Freemasonry: Morality, Brotherly Love and Charity. We also look back with gratitude for the dedicated service of our outgoing Worshipful Master Richard Biggs III, whose tireless commitment and leadership have guided us through the past year. His efforts in upholding the traditions and values of the fraternity leave an indelible mark within our lodge. We Thank you for all your hard work and guidance.

With our new line of officers committing to foster fellowship, strengthening our lodge's legacy, and ensuring that we continue to be a light in our community, I look forward to what each of you bring to the table. This month marks a fresh start, filled with opportunities to grow as individuals and as a brotherhood. I encourage all brethren of this and all other lodges to actively participate, share your wisdom, and support one another. Let us build on our shared foundation to make this year one of inspiration and achievement.

Fraternally,
WM Scott Foster
