

THE MASTER'S MESSAGE

Dear Brethren,

I want to take a moment to express my sincere gratitude to each of you for your dedication and hard work in making Livingston Lodge #11 a place of true brotherhood and Masonic excellence. Your commitment to our lodge, whether through ritual work, organizing events, or simply supporting one another, has been inspiring. It is because of your efforts that we continue to uphold the values of our great fraternity.

As we look ahead, I am excited for the months to come. We have many wonderful events planned—opportunities to strengthen our bonds, serve our community, and grow as Masons. Whether it's degrees, fellowship gatherings, or charitable initiatives, I encourage each of you to stay engaged and take part in all that our lodge has to offer.

Let us continue working together in harmony, with the same dedication and enthusiasm that have brought us this far. I am honored to serve as your Worshipful Master and look forward to the great things we will accomplish together.

May the Great Architect of the Universe bless and guide us all.

Fraternally,
Scott Foster, WM
